Dear Sir or Madam,

Town and Country Planning Act 1990

SITE: 7 - 18 Temple Close
London
N3 3SB

PROPOSAL: Construction of an additional (second) floor to nos. 7 to 14 plus rooms in roofspace to provide habitable rooms at loft level with dormer windows and rooflights. Two storey extension to nos. 15 to 18 with associated extension and alterations to roof with habitable rooms at roof level with dormer windows and rooflights. To provide an additional 9no. self-contained flats with car and cycle parking and refuse /recycling storage

A planning application has been submitted to Barnet Council for the above development. If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Sinead Normoyle

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

A planning application has been submitted to Barnet Council for the above development. If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

A planning application has been submitted to Barnet Council for the above development. If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Two storey extension to nos. 15 to 18 with associated extension and alterations to roof with habitable rooms at roof level with dormer windows and rooflights. To provide an additional 9no. self-contained flats with car and cycle parking and refuse /recycling storage

A planning application has been submitted to Barnet Council for the above development. If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Sinead Normoyle

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

A planning application has been submitted to Barnet Council for the above development. If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

If you would like to look at the application, the easiest way is through our website, by following the link at <https://publicaccess.barnet.gov.uk/online-applications/> and entering the application reference 20/5207/FUL or address into the Simple Search.

Comments should be submitted online using the 'Make a Public Comment' option once you have found the application you wish to comment on and should be received by 29 December 2020. The website contains guidance on how to comment on a planning application.

Comments can be made in writing and posted to us at the above address if you don't have access to the internet. All comments must be received by 29 December 2020 if you want us to consider them. Please ensure your name, address, is included in any written correspondence and quote reference 20/5207/FUL. You will not receive an acknowledgement if you comment by post.

Publication of Comments

Any formal comment you make about an application will form part of the planning register, which is open to the public and available online. This means that your comment, name and address will form part of the application documents and will be available for inspection. Your comment, name and address will be published online. Signatures, email addresses and telephone numbers will be redacted.

Please do not include any personal information in your comment that you would not be happy to be made publicly available. Do not include personal information about other people without their permission. Please note that transparency is in the public interest and names of individuals will only be redacted in exceptional circumstances.

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,

If you wish to be considered as a potential speaker, should the application be determined by committee, you need to state this when making your comment on the application. This is done either by ticking the 'request to speak' box on the online system for commenting, or if you are providing a written response by post then please write 'I request to speak at committee' visibly at the top of your letter.

Speaking at Committee

Most planning applications are approved or declined by council officers who review your written comments and summarise these within their report where the application is determined. Some applications will be discussed at a council planning committee – usually these are major applications, applications that have been 'called-in' by a ward Member or have been referred to committee for determination by the Chief Planning Officer. Where an application is decided by a committee, the council's constitution allows for up to two speakers for each application, plus the applicant or their representative.

If more than two people request to speak in favour or against an application, then we will expect commenters to agree among themselves who is best placed to speak. To arrange this, we provide the name and email address of everyone who has requested to speak on the item to each other. It is not possible for you to request to speak without agreeing to your name and email address being shared with other people who also want to speak on this application.

If an appeal is made against the decision, your comment in its entirety will be passed to the Planning Inspectorate and appellant.

Yours faithfully,
