 - 5. The Human Rights Act 1998

For each of the standards listed above, a simple "yes" or "no" response will suffice. No other elaboration is necessary.

We have processed this request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Response

This is not a valid request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. While the FOIA allows people to request information, subject to any exemptions in the Act, the information requested must be held in a recorded form. We do not hold the information requested in the format required. We are not required to create new information in order to respond to a request.

Further information

Advice and Assistance : Direct Marketing

If you are a company that intends to use the names and contact details of council officers (or other officers) provided in this response for direct marketing, you need to be registered with the Information Commissioner to process personal data for this purpose. You must also check that the individual (whom you wish to contact for direct marketing purposes) is not registered with one of the Preference Services to prevent Direct Marketing. If they are you must adhere to this preference.

You must also ensure you comply with the Privacy Electronic and Communications Regulations (PECR). For more information follow this Link www.ico.org.uk

For the avoidance of doubt the provision of council (and other) officer names and contact details under FOI does not give consent to receive direct marketing via any media and expressly does not constitute a 'soft opt-in' under PECR.
